

I would think that the plans of the Sinclair Broadcast Group to use the Public Airwaves to spew uncontested venom to the Electorate would be, in and of itself, so reprehensible that no comment would be necessary by anyone and that the FCC would step in and do the right thing by its own volition.

However, the drift towards Propagande to keep the Powerful in control, I fear, is too great to be stopped. Is there anyone associated with the FCC that has even a shred of decency, combined with the urge to be truly fair.

Please let me feel I am underestimating the FCC and its willingness to stop such underhanded chicanery.
